

On April 13, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court entered a Scheduling Order that set forth the dates for briefing and a hearing on the issue as to whether certain claimants ("Objecting Claimants") who invested through entities such as feeder funds were "customers" as that term is defined under SIPA. In accordance with the Scheduling Order, the Trustee filed a Motion on June 11, 2010 seeking to affirm the denial of the claims of the Objecting Claimants, who did not have accounts with BLMIS but instead invested, directly or indirectly, in "feeder funds" that had accounts and invested with BLMIS. In support of the Motion, the Trustee filed a memorandum of law, and the declarations of David J. Sheehan ("Sheehan Declaration") and Matthew B. Greenblatt ("Greenblatt Declaration"), with supporting exhibits. Exhibit 1 to the Sheehan Declaration lists the feeder funds whose investors are the subject of the Trustee's Motion. Exhibits 2 and 3 to the Sheehan Declaration list the specific investors whose claims and objections are included in the Trustee's Motion.
